Turn-by-Turn Directions

Maps On Us Routing Disclaimer

We'll give your turn-by-turn directions in a moment. But since this is your first route, we'd like you to read the following. When you' done, click on the "ACKNOWLEDGE" button at the bottom of this box, and we won't bother you with this message again.

Our goal is to give accurate, easy to follow "door-to-door" directions from anywhere in the United States. Although much of our road information is extremely accurate, some is not.

The good news is that our routes can be very good. At times, we've found routes that are better than ones frequent travelers have used years. The bad news is that sometimes our routes can be, well, creative. For example, a route might tell you to get off an interstate highway, take a local road and then get back on the same interstate. We ask that you be patient with any errors you may find. Our routes will continually improve as the quality of our data improves and as we invent better routing algorithms.

And finally, a message from our lawyers:

Use these directions at your own risk. Switchboard Incorporated does not guarantee their accuracy or drivability. Switchboard Incorporated will not be responsible for any damages or losses which result from using these directions. Obey all traffic regulations.
